

THROWBACK THURSDAY

Packers Ticket Office

Erected in 1890 on the northwest corner of Walnut and Jefferson streets, the building was originally used as the annex to the old Brown County Courthouse. Later it became the home of the Green Bay Women's Club. In the 1940s, the American Legion and the Green Bay Packers Ticket Office occupied the site before it was razed in 1955 to make way for a new post office. The site is now occupied by the Sophie Beaumont Building, which houses the Brown County Human Services Department.

» Order a reproduction of this and other photos from the Neville Public Museum of Brown County at <http://photos.nevillepublicmuseum.org>.

Then

The Packers' ticket office at Jefferson and Walnut streets in downtown Green Bay in the 1940s.

COURTESY OF THE
NEVILLE PUBLIC
MUSEUM OF BROWN COUNTY

Now

Brown County's Human Services Department now occupies the former site of the Packers' ticket office at the northwest corner of Walnut and Jefferson streets in Green Bay.

JIM MATTHEWS/
PRESS-GAZETTE MEDIA/
@JMATTHE79